TREK TO THE SIERRA HAS STARTED AS HUNTERS SWARM IN FOR OPENING OF DEER SEASON SATURDAY MORNING

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22—Trek to the Sierra has already started, and will reach a peak tomorrow

SPECIAL SHOOT HUNTERS SHOULD CALL SCRUGGS

SPRINGVILLE, Sept. 22 — In order to give "local hunters" a chance on his ranch, Harry Scruggs states that persons with a special shoot permit for the antlerless season that opens September 27, can contact him by phone in the evenings.

In order to hunt on private land, hunters must obtain permission from the land owner. Harry says he can almost guarantee a deer on his ranch between Springville and Milo. That's what Harry says.

of deer season, Saturday morning. By pack train, by foot and by and over the weekend, when hunters from throughout the state swarm into the Sierra for opening car, as well as by Trailmobile and Tote Gote, hunters will be heading for the hills — and a weekend, the mountains will be full of confusion.

Official report on prospects in Tulare and Eastern Kern counties, from the state department of fish and game, says that within the National forest, deer are "relatively abundant, but scattered."

Recently constructed roads in the Troy Meadows and Brush Creek areas will open the country a little more on the Kern Plateau, and new road out of Quaking As-

JUNIOR FAT STOCK SALE SATURDAY MORNING IS FEATURE OF COUNTY FAIR

TULARE, Sept. 22 — It will be "pay-off day" for Future Farmers and 4-H club exhibitors as they put their fat animals on the block Saturday, 9 a.m., at the Tulare County fair in the fair's annual junior fat stock sale.

And it will be "buying time" for many county residents as they take advantage of the opportunity to purchase the finest meat — beef, pork and lamb — for their lockers. Only blue and red ribbon animals will be offered.

Southeastern Tulare county young people will be well represented at the sale, as Porterville high school Future Farmers, and 4-H club members are moving their project animals into the winner's circle in fat stock classes judged since opening of the fair, Tuesday.

Saturday program will also feature 4-H Club meat animal and dairy judging at 1 p.m., and in the entertainment field, motorcycle racers will hold the spotlight in the afternoon and evening. Cousin Herb and his Tradin' Post gang will play for dancing, starting at 9 p.m.

WITH THE Tulare County Fair now open, the pie bakers of Tulare county will be out to win the many nice cups and ribbons in the contest sponsored jointly by the Sun-Maid Raisin Growers and the Tulare county chamber of commerce. The competition this year should be keener than usual as Miss Pat Carvalho of Tulare, above, has been the winner for the past two years and if she is successful this year, will retain the large trophy cup and will join Mrs. Judy Hein and Vern Kirschler of Tulare, both three-time winners. The raisin pies for the 1960 contest will be received Friday, September 23rd from 9 a.m. to noon. The fair association will provide a qualified judge. Pies may be entered in three divisions: All raisin; one crust raisin with cream or custard; and raisin pie, any other type. The first prize in each division will be a gold cup and ribbon. Second and third place winners will receive ribbons. The first place winners will compete for the large perpetual sweepstakes gold trophy which is held by the winner until the next year's fair and then returned to be awarded to the next sweepstakes winner. CHAPEL CHIMES

By
Rev. N. J.
Thompson

"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me," Jesus said.

What does Jesus mean? How can a person hear His voice? Chiefly, He speaks to human hearts through God's Word.

As He tries to gain our ear above the din and turmoil of this jet age, He hears how we speak about Him.

He hears that worldly fellow, while he guzzles his beer and smokes a cigar, talks glibly about "The Man Upstairs", or "The Big Boss Up There." This fellow is trying to show, of course, that he's doing his part to keep religion fashionable. He isn't a pious stuffed shirt. He's a regular guy. He has "joined" a church, and he is palsyswally with a nice chummy God!

That's the nice thing about this new-fangled, streamlined, painless religion — God is so very easy to get along with!

A churchman calls this sugarcoating religion. He believes that, on the whole, it's a good thing, for it shows that religion is making an impact on people it never has touched before. Others think differently. They assert that our modern flippant (and un-Scriptural) attitude toward God is corrupting real Christianity.

Perhaps all this is simply the way of the worldly wise of trying to get on the religious bandwagon? At any rate, this sugarcoating is so ludicrous that God must be amused. It is not serious enough to be a menace to religious faith. Neither does it add anything to the cause of Christianity.

So this looks like a good time to stop talking about "The Man Up-

DECIDUOUS TREES NEED FALL IRRIGATION

By James H. LaRue
Farm Advisor

VISALIA, Sept. 22 — Deciduous fruit and nut growers sometimes forget that their trees need irrigating after the crop has been harvested; dry orchard soil now can seriously reduce next year's crop.

Although not visible to the naked eye, fruit trees are now forming flower buds which will open next spring. The number of flower buds formed can be reduced, along with the destruction of parts of the root system by allowing the soil to become too dry in the fall months.

Growers should check soil moisture frequently during the fall and provide the tree with adequate water until the beginning of the first soaking rains. Light irrigations should continue even after the leaves have fallen, if rainfall is not sufficient to prevent the soil from drying out.

In Memphis, Tennessee, it's officially against the law to drive while you're asleep.

stairs." Let's try listening to God, for a change. First, throw away that cigar and beer mug.

And now, dust off that Bible!

Porterville College In First Home Game Saturday Night Against Strong Oceanside-Carlsbad College

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22—The Porterville College Pirates, not the least down-hearted after their 26-0 defeat at the hands of a strong Hartnell College squad in a season opener, will host Oceanside-Carlsbad College in the first home game Saturday night at the college stadium.

Coach Ed McDermott and his assistant, Carl Elder, both were high in their praise of the Pirates' performance against Hartnell, which is rated stronger than its Alfalfa Bowl team of last season.

"When you consider that we have only two sophomores on our entire squad, I think the team did very well against Hartnell," McDermott said. "We were especially pleased with their comeback in the last half, and with their fine condition."

McDermott praised the running of Charles Maxey, star Hartnell halfback. If they had left Maxey at home, it would have been a 0-0 ball game, the Pirate coach said.

Hartnell used its strong running attack to score three touchdowns against Porterville in the first half, but the Pirates made defensive adjustments which held the Panthers to one score in the last half hour.

McDermott and Elder were especially pleased with the defensive effort of their relatively small squad, although the Pirates also showed some flashes of offensive power. Doarl Boyett, speedy halfback from Wasco, was a leading ground gainer for Porterville.

Defensively, McDermott praised the work of tackles Pete Adelsbach and John Vaughn, and of guard Willie Pickering in the front line; and center Larry Kirby, guard Alan Franks, and fullback Don Hard as linebackers.

Bernie Harris, a center and tackle from Wasco, was the only physical casualty of the game. He received a gash on his forehead early in the game which required stitches to close.

"If we can take up where we left off Saturday night," McDermott said, "we're going to go a long way this week."

Oceanside, which will be meeting the Pirates for the first time in nearly 10 years, lost a close decision to Allan Hancock college in its opener last weekend. They are not rated as strong as Hartnell, McDermott said.

F. B. Pressley Vice President Of Social Agencies

VISALIA, Sept. 22 — The board of directors of the Tulare County Council of Health and Social agencies has announced today election of Ernest Casassa, administrator of Visalia Municipal hospital, as president, succeeding Raymond McHugh of the Exeter Memorial hospital.

Serving with Casassa are F. B. Pressley, Administrative Assistant of the Porterville State hospital, vice president; Jeanette Jacobs, executive secretary of the Crippled Children's society, secretary; and N. N. Sheklian, Vice public accountant, treasurer.

Committee members chosen were Dr. James Goettle, who will head the Health committee; Frank Wiley, who will head the Welfare committee; George Haden, who will head the Education committee, and William Flynn is in charge of the Public Relations.

Upper Division Extension Courses Offered At College

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22—Two upper division courses in education will be offered Thursday evenings on the Porterville college campus by the extension division of Fresno State college. Both classes will hold their first meetings tonight, and sessions will be from 7 to 9 p.m.

Education 171, Elementary Education, will meet in L-1 on the college campus, and Education 174, Principles and Techniques in Guidance, will meet in L-4. Each course offers two units of upper division credit, and meet requirements in the teacher credential program.

Time Out

By DAVIS HARP

I'M THAT LARGE PUDGY FELLOW, DARKLY DRESSED AND DABBING EYES

Football season officially opened around the nation last weekend. There was the usual rash of opening day upsets. Our beloved University of Southern California Trojans, a team we rated quite highly in a recent venture into the football prognostication field, were blasted 14-0 by Oregon State, a team that we held in contempt.

Porterville College's thinly manned Pirates traveled to Salinas and were handed a 26-0 loss by the Hartnell Panthers. We doubt that anyone locally was greatly surprised by the loss. The Pirates are a greatly inexperienced team and we think that this team will not disgrace the city before the season is over. The youngsters, only two Pirates had played college ball before the opening contest, played an encouraging second half and had they received a few breaks they probably would have put a couple of touchdowns on the scoreboard themselves. The Pirates remain at home this weekend to entertain the Oceanside-Carlsbad eleven from deep southern California.

Then, to make things worse, the San Francisco 49'ers dropped their third consecutive game. When SC and the 49'ers both lose in the same weekend we usually break out our somber mourning cloths for the following week. So if you see a large pudgy fellow walking about this week dressed darkly and dabbing at his eyes with a handkerchief, it is I.

But the picture is not completely black. On Olive street, at the stop light and smell of burned rubber, Coach Sim Ennis is whipping his Porterville High School Panthers into shape for their season opener with the Arvin High School Bears Friday night at Jamison Stadium. Big Sim is so blessed with material this year that he is able to break the squad down to three units of nearly equal strength. We have watched the squad work out on occasion and have been impressed with the hustle and spirit of the outfit. We think the Panthers are in for a better season than last year's injury riddled affair. We look for the Panthers to be an outstanding defensive group. But we do not think they will score a lot of points. This is not a forecast for a dismal season, as many Porterville fans will remember that Carl Elder produced a league championship team in 1952 on the strength of a rip-snorting defensive team.

So it looks like we have a full football menu for Porterville sports fans this weekend at Jamison Stadium. We will confidentially predict a win apiece for the Panthers and the Pirates.

Last weekend was the occasion of our final deer hunt in the coast range mountains for this season. Our rugged two days of hiking produced a big zero for our efforts.

Our father-in-law, Jim Rutledge, claims we could have had a buck, or even two, if we had been in the right spot. It seems that Jim has been hunting that particular area for about fifteen years and knows the nooks and crannies of the Avanal ranch like the back of his hand. This is just the second year that he has taken us there, and while we cannot say that we have ever been lost we often find ourselves in the doubtful position of not knowing where we are.

The Sierra season opens this weekend and the hills around and about will ring with shot and shell as many a wild-eyed hunter takes to the field. We won't make it this Saturday as our Marine Corps Reserve Unit has thoughtfully arranged for us to march in the Exeter parade Saturday, with a pack on our back yet.

Significant Statements by Interesting Californians

REV. CAIRNS HENDERSON, San Carlos, on safe driving — "It may be theologically unsound, but I always figure it's better to be ten minutes late in this world than ten years early in the next."

Trout Season Opening Proposed April 29 In County

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

Male Menopause?

- Body Odor
- Rifle Deafness

Q. Do men go through a change of life?

A. Some men, though not many, go through a "change" similar to the female menopause. Onset is later than in women and symptoms, if any, are usually vague. The "change," if it is noted at all, occurs gradually and without any effect as dramatic as the cessation of menstruation in the female. Doctors have effective ways of relieving male "change of life" symptoms as well as those experienced by the female during menopause.

Q. Are food odors, such as garlic and beer, given off through the skin?

A. Food odors may emanate from sweat, and hence may come "through" the skin.

Q. Is the loss of hearing due to firing of a rifle or pistol temporary or permanent? Should ear plugs be used?

A. It is generally stated that if the loss of hearing caused by firing of guns lasts longer than a week or so, it will be permanent. Once the condition has become permanent, there is no effective treatment. Ear plugs help prevent ear injury due to loud noises.

BEAN CO-OP HAS NEW PLANT IN PIXLEY AREA

PIXLEY, Sept. 22 — Tulare county's newest industrial plant is now ready to go into operation at Pixley. The $130,000 bean cleaning and processing plant of the Cal Bean and Growers' co-operative is the most modern and up to date plant of its kind in the state, it is reported. The machinery installed was especially designed and custom built for handling black eyed beans, but will also handle all other varieties.

The new plant is housed in an 80 x 200 ft. building with all possible labor saving devices installed, which includes an unloading bulk pit which is 23 ft. below the surface of the ground. The beans then take an elevator to 75 ft. above ground and are fed down through the plant through the latest type cleaning machinery, which has brought the approval of Elvin O. Mankins, Agricultural commissioner of the county, for handling of certified seed.

The plant was erected and is financed by a group of farmers who specialize in growing black eyed beans; the plant will handle up to 200,000 sacks of beans per season. Everything has been readied to handle the crop fast, including a fumigation chamber which will hold 800 sacks, it is stated.

Jean Arnett is the general manager and Elmer Williamson, a grower, is chairman of the board of directors, which is made up of growers from Tulare, Kings, Fresno and Kern counties.

GORDON TODD JR. SEATED AS DUCOR 4-H PRESIDENT

DUCOR, Sept. 22 — The Ducor 4-H Club held their first meeting of the fall season, with the flag salute given by Mike Guinn.

Ray Copeland, of the Agricultural Extension office of Visalia, was introduced by Jack Smith and installed the new officers in a candlelight ceremony.

John Baldwin, the retiring president, turned the gavel over to the new president, Gordon R. Todd, Jr. The other new officers are: John Smith Jr., vice president; Glenna Cannella, secretary; David Cannella, sergeant-at-arms; Henry Owen, treasurer; Susan Owen, song leader, and Calvin Todd, reporter.

The president called on the following members for project reports: Less Guthrie, Barbara Owen, Jim Parsons and Gary Todd. Each one told the club of the projects they have at present and what they plan to carry the coming year.

The members who attended the Junior 4-H camp at Whitaker forest were asked to report about their trip. They were Romona Smith, Virginia Rankins, Linda Jones, Jim Parsons and Gary Todd. Kathie Rankins served as Junior counsellor.

John Smith told of his experience at the 4-H three-day camp out in Isham valley.

Gordon Todd, Jr., reported to the club on his trip to Berkeley, where he attended the American institute of Cooperatives. The Institute was held in California for the first time since 1928; delegates came from every part of America, from Puerto Rico and Canada. Todd represented Porterville Future Farmers of America, at Porterville High school.

A panel discussion was given by Glenna Cannella, Susan Owen and John Smith. They were sent to the State Leadership conference at the University of Davis. They told about an interesting speech given by Mr. Tichinin, "What 10,000 Russians Told Me In Russia."

The meeting was closed by Susan Owen leading the club in singing.

Refreshments were served by Glenna, Ben and David Cannella,

The Man At The Keyhole

With all the hullabaloo over the government paying medical and hospital bills for everyone over age 65, the latest survey of those 65 and over on the subject is more than a little interesting. Ninety per cent of the people 65 and over interviewed oppose the government providing hospital and medical care!

A new Stevenson rumor has Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy planning to ship Adlia to Britain as U. S. Ambassador instead of naming him Secretary of State or UN Ambassador as earlier reported.

Kennedy forces, insiders note, are pouring tremendous sums of money into California — particularly in registration of new voters in Democratic areas — in the belief that the Golden State may determine the outcome of the presidential race.

Key farm groups, slow to arouse politically, are fighting mad at Governor Brown and are determined to defeat him in 1962, Capitol politicians report, because of what they consider connivance of his administration with the current farm unionization drive.

Strong partisans of Attorney General Stanley Mosk are checking gingerly to see just how weak Governor Brown might be among Democrats — with admittedly "long shot" idea of a possible challenge to the Governor for his own party's nomination in 1962.

Government Reorganization Is Film Subject

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22—Government reorganization film has been made available to California State Employees' Association, Porterville Chapter 113, for showing on September 27, 1960, at 8:00 p.m. in the Rehabilitation auditorium at Porterville State Hospital.

C. S. E. A. extends an invitation to attend this film showing to all city and county employees as well as its own membership.

We Only Heard

BY BILL RODGERS

AT THIS season of the year, many persons discount comments about holders of public office as "just politics", but people of the 35th Assembly district better take a look at "politics" in the light of recorded fact.

IF YOU are a farmer, you no doubt recall two infamous numbers connected with the first session of the state legislature under the Brown administration in 1959 — A.B. 419 and A.B. 1223. It was concerning these bills that farmers of this area, and of other areas, staged an indignation march on Sacramento in an effort to kill these bills — which they did by one vote in Senate committees. One committee vote; that's how close it was, and those same bills will be back again in the 1961 session.

WELL, WHAT was A.B. 419? This bill was referred to as the Governor's Labor Organization bill, and, under its provisions, the door would be opened wide, and the "welcome" sign hung out, for labor organizers in our agricultural fields. Farmers know the danger of this; that's why they marched on Sacramento to protect their interests.

BUT THE assemblyman from Tulare and Kings county — Myron Frew — voted "yes" on the 419 bill; he voted yes in spite of strong opposition to this bill from the people he professes to represent, then, we are told, later justified his vote by saying he had to go along with the Brown program — the Governor Brown program, that is.

NOW, WHAT was A.B. 1223? as far as agriculture is concerned this bill would have initially established a minimum wage of $1.25 an hour for agricultural workers; in its final, amended form, the amount was 90 cents. The issue was not the amount of the wage, since California farmers, by the record, pay more than this, but it was the principle of placing agriculture under a mandatory wage system that would certainly result in increasingly tough competition for California farmers in marketing their farm produce along side of produce from states without a minimum wage law.

OUR OWN Tulare county, and Kings county farmers, marched on Sacramento to say "no" to this proposed bill. Assemblyman Frew voted "yes."

REMEMBER THIS. Both of these bills, 419 and 1223, passed the State Assembly. Fortunately, both were killed in a State Senate committee, each by only a one-vote majority, and thus were prevented from coming to the floor of the Senate.

BUT THEY will be back in the 1961 session of the legislature. If Mr. Frew is still in the Assembly, it is reasonable to believe that he will again vote for them. After all, he is committed to the Brown program and philosophy.

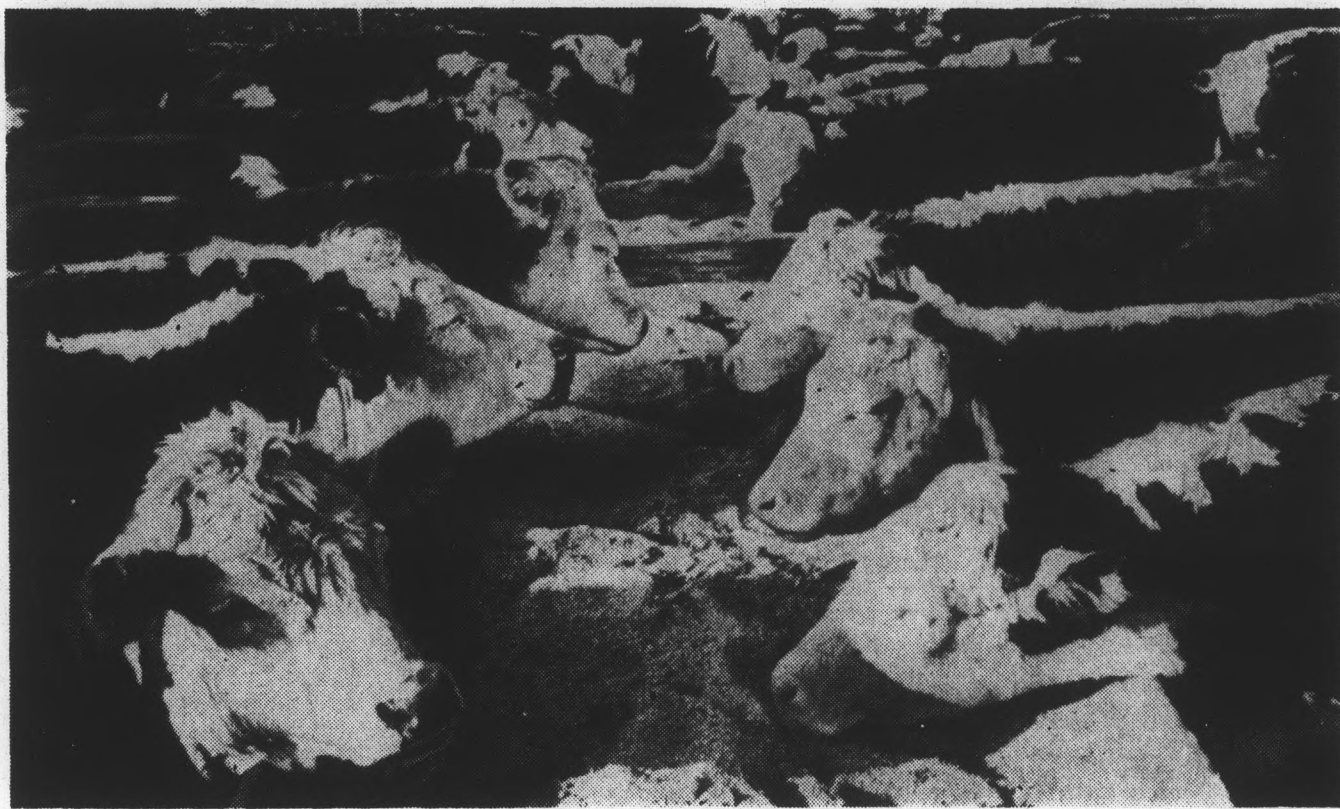

BUT VOTERS of Tulare and Kings counties will have an opportunity on November 8, to replace Mr. Frew with a man named Domer F. Power, who is a farmer himself and who understands the problems of farmers.

MR. POWER makes this pledge to agriculture: I will support legislation to prevent outlaw strikes on the farm; I will oppose any minimum agricultural wage provision that applies only to California; I will support a research program designed to increase efficiency, and thereby income, of agricultural workers; I will support sound agricultural legislation based on what farmers themselves want.

THERE YOU have it: Mr. Frew's vote record in opposition to the farmers of his district on

These prominent Porterville civic leaders ask your cooperation for child safety and traffic safety

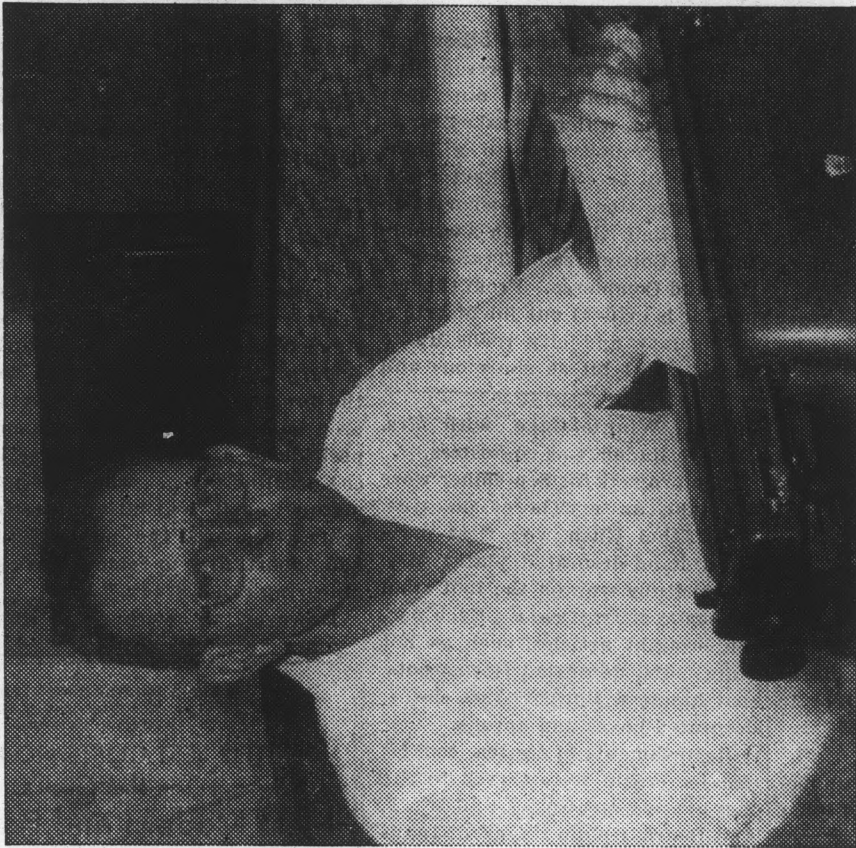

CHARLES W. EASTERBROOK
Superintendent of Schools

Along with a well-rounded curriculum, our Porterville schools offer a fine program of safety education. We endeavor to develop safe work and play habits for our young people at every grade level.

However, it is possible that some youngster, in the excitement of the moment, may forget the most elementary safety rules and dart into the street or cross where it is not safe to cross. His fate may then depend on how carefully our motorists are driving.

We urge all parents and other members of this community to follow the safety rules of the highway and at all times remember, safety is no accident!

W. M. RODGERS
Mayor of Porterville

With schools back in session, many of our streets are thronged morning, noon, and afternoon with children of all ages going to and from their classes. These are our adults of tomorrow who are as carefree today as we were yesterday. It behooves us, therefore, to take an extra measure of caution while we are driving to make up for the safety consciousness that some of our younger children may lack.

It may be that some boy or girl, perhaps even your own, will live to see next summer because the adults of Porterville drove carefully this school year.

JAMES K. KENDRICK
Chief of Police

The Porterville Police Department is proud of the commendable safety record the town has established in recent years. Our 20-man force has worked as a team along with the motoring public to achieve this record, and we pledge our support to every effort made in behalf of child safety.

We are doing everything in our power to assure the safety of our children as they travel back and forth to school. In the final analysis however, their fate is in your hands. When you are driving, obey all the traffic rules, keep alert and drive carefully, and our streets will be safe streets for our children.

YOUR LEGISLATOR AT WORK!

Senator
J. Howard Williams

32nd District
California State Legislature

"How do we get from here to there?" is a tough enough question in today's traffic. But "how WILL we get here to there?" is a real nutcracker when we try to look forward only five years to 1965, even worse when we try to make a twenty year forecast up to 1980. The plain fact is, our ability to get around freely in our cars and trucks depends, not only on the capacity and condition of our state highways, but also on those of our county and city roads and streets. Neither kind can be permitted to fall behind.

These truths were brought strongly home to us the other day, when a report on the present and future deficiencies of our local road system, which we asked for in 1959, was delivered to a joint meeting of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Transportation and Public Utilities with Assembly Interim Committee on Transportation and Commerce. From this report, it is evident our job of bringing county and city roads up to par is every bit as enormous and of Mrs. Winnie Gage, with Mrs. Juanite Radeleff as co-hostess.

The projects for September were to make an article of discards. Mrs. Ethel Rush won first prize for a hand-decorated plate; Mrs. Bessie Ruby won on the foot stool she made of fruit cans. Each person brought articles, such as hot plate mats, decorated flower pots, coat hangers, flowers, dust cloths, decorated boxes and aprons.

Refreshments of ice-cream, cookies and ice cream were served to the ones already mentioned, and Mes. Ann Board, Goldie Haggard, Juanita Radeleff, Rose Van Ness, Florence Fitzpatrick, Emma McCutcheon, Misses Alice Smith, Jeannette and Lucille Higgins. Mrs. Lottie Fleck was a guest.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ethel Rush and will be the annual election, and each member is to bring a hand-made Christmas gift.

Mrs. Don Maxon is home after being in the Lindsay hospital for several weeks.

Mrs. Nancy Schneider of Los Angeles was a Sunday evening caller in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart have returned from a month's vacation visiting with friends and relatives in Colorado and Illinois.

costly as that on our state highways.

The report was prepared by the department of public works, with the assistance of a 14 member advisory committee, appointed by the Senate President pro Tempore and the Assembly Speaker. Included were both county and city officials and engineers, representatives of the auto clubs and the petroleum industry, and those of the California railroad association, trucking association and state chamber of commerce. In the report, the department said the advice and services of the advisory committee were invaluable in carrying out the required study. Detailed estimates from all 58 counties and all but one city were used to compile the totals.

It's an inescapable fact that within the next twenty years more than 100,000 miles of existing county roads and city streets must be improved unless we are to be strangled by motor vehicles. That's more than two-thirds of the total mileage we now travel over.

And the cost estimates — they are astronomical! Including estimates for future growth needs, the accumulated cost over the twenty year period is tentatively fixed at $12.75 billion, which compares with the estimates of cost for the newly established state freeway and expressway system. An immediate expenditure of close to $2 billion would be needed to bring local roads and streets up to the demands of today's traffic.

In our resolution requesting the report, we asked for advice as to whether we should consider upping the gas tax by one cent to help pay for this improvement program. The report neatly side-stepped this hot one by adroitly remarking that to recommend "on the precise details of a financing program, as, for example, the imposition of a one-cent increase in the gasoline tax . . . would be premature until legislative interim committees and the public have had opportunity to review this engineering needs study."

However, we were given some light on the intricacies of this touchy matter by the staff of the Senate Committee, which submitted a separate memorandum on possibilities for additional revenue. It is estimated that a raise of one cent per gallon in the gas tax would produce $1.84 billion more over twenty years. As an alternative, an increase of $1 per $100 of motor vehicle value in the "in lieu" tax would raise $1.94 billion over the same period. A motorist who now pays $20 "in lieu" would pay $30 under this latter proposal, for example.

The cooperation between county, city, and state officials which produced this report will be needed to work out the best answer.

In a way it's sort of amazing that bulbs from all over the world can be purchased in Porterville for fall planting. Most of these we take for granted and probably our children will demand bulbs from outer space in preference but it's still an amazing thing.

For instance Sparaxis which has a Greek name is really from South Africa. This brightly colored, easy to grow bulb is a good one for every garden. It has been hybridized in recent years to add extra color combinations to an already good flower.

Tulips we consider Dutch but actually they started in Persia. In ancient Persian their name means turban and refers to the shape of the inverted flower. We gather that ancient Persians must have seen the world upside down. The Dutch became somewhat crazy over tulips in 1634 and neglected their jobs and families to gamble in them. Individual bulbs sold for around $3,000.00 which would have purchased a lot of wooden shoes in those days. The price has dropped the last three or four hundred years and we have the best in Dutch bulbs for a dollar fifty a dozen.

The lowly Narcissus resulted from boy-girl trouble in Greek mythology. The lad, whose name was Narcissus, jilted his girl friend, the goddess Echo, who finally died of grief. This out Narcissus in a bad spot so he pined away and the gods transformed him into the flower called Narcissus. These we also have along with bulbs from Siberia, China, Japan, the Gobi Desert, and Oregon. Over sixty kinds to be planted now for early color.

WORKING STUDENTS UP TO 18 YEARS, ALSO EMPLOYERS, MUST HAVE PERMITS

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22 — 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Working high school students are required to have work permits, L. E. Grimm, attendance supervisor at Porterville Union High school announced today. These permits are required by both federal and state child labor laws, he said; work permits of all kinds are issued by the attendance office at the high school from 3:00 p.m. to

A minor 16 to 18 years of age, must have a permit to work during or outside of school hours. However, a student 14 to 16 years of age is permitted to work only outside of school hours. Those minors under 14 may work only on non-school days. Permits are required of all age groups for employment of any kind, except in agriculture and domestic work performed for parents or guardians.

Employers must also have a permit to employ students under 16, Grimm stated. Hours of employment, under state law, are regulated for all minors under 18. The maximum combined work and school time permitted is eight hours per day. Minors may not work more than six days or 48 hours per week. Work must be performed within a spread of 13 hours, and may not be performed after 10:00 p.m. or before 5:00 a.m.

Final day of the fair, Sunday, will feature an amateur rodeo in the afternoon and a county participating fashion show in the evening.

Grandstand show, tonight, Thursday, will feature a million dollar livestock parade and a display of fireworks, with dancing in Elliott auditorium to the music of Maddox Brothers and Rose.

Destruction derby will be the grandstand feature Friday night. Free vaudeville is presented on the grounds daily, along with the Foley and Burk carnival.

Porterville was well represented in the Dairy Fiesta parade that preceded fair opening, Tuesday. Ed Jones, in his 1913 Speedwell, placed third in the Horseless Carriage division; riding with him in old-fashioned costumes were Mesdames A. K. Hodgson, Virgil Hodgson and Jim Kendrick.

Porterville's Canterbelles appeared in their colorful uniforms; among Porterville's individual riding entries were: Gail Hicks, Eva Morris, Marie Lucas and Marilyn Cerniga; Jim Howell appeared with the Tulare County Sheriff's Posse.

Porterville's high school band also participated on a non-competitive basis in the parade.

pen toward Boulder creek will also make it a little easier to get just a little further by car.

It is reported that all streams are extremely low, and some may not be suitable for drinking water.

And attention is called to the fire hazard that now exists because of dry years, with hunters being urged to take special care with fires.

Fish and Game officials also urge hunters to observe rules of courtesy if they enter privately owned lands.

Meanwhile, operators of frozen food lockers in the area will be waiting, Saturday morning, for that first buck to come in.

OLD MEANIE IS IN DOG HOUSE BECAUSE OF DOGS AND TEENAGERS

WE HAVE ALWAYS prided ourselves on being a friend to dogs and teen-agers, and now we have discovered that "pride goeth before a fall." Once we had three dogs and three teen-agers. We now have one dog and three teen-agers, and at times wouldn't mind reversing the ratio; especially when a matter of disagreement arises.

DOGS WILL MAKE NASTY noises in their throats like jungle animals and occasionally bare their teeth when emotionally disturbed, but they rarely bite the hand that feeds them. Teen-agers are another matter. They too make nasty growls and bare their teeth when emotionally disturbed, but unfortunately, they are much more articulate than dogs, and don't hesitate to articulate to all in hearing distance when somewhat annoyed with the idiocies of the elders. As if this were not enough, they also take to the telephone lines and seek commiseration among their friends as they moan and sigh over the mongolian tendencies of their parents.

THE REASON FOR PAIRING dogs and teen-agers together today is really quite simple. It is the power of suggestion; in fact, it's been suggested 23 times in one evening that we buy a new dog; a poodle yet.

THE EVENING STARTED normally enough. We came merrily home from work with a smile on our lips and a spring in our walk. We attacked our usual chores, chopping a cord of wood, mowing a half-acre of lawn and washing the car. We then joined the teenage group which was draped supinely 'round and about the premises doing home-work. About 5:28 the phone rang, and rang in a troublesome evening for this department.

OUR BRIGHT, BRILLIANT and ever-loving daughter caught it on the second ring, and there followed a squishy conversation of "oohs" and "ahs" and miscellaneous teen-age expressions. "Guess what?" she asked, as she hung up the Graham Bell, "We can buy a poodle at a bargain and there is only one left and aren't we lucky because they will save it for us if we rush right over."

WE MET THIS ONSLAUGHT with cool logic. Main point of rebuttal being "Who house breaks the animal? When logic failed, we resorted to "No", repeated at intervals of five minutes throughout the evening. Well, the "no" prevailed but I have lost cast with teen-agers and dogs.

MAKE WAY IN THE DOG house for an old meanie who hates dogs and misunderstands children. Just an average American father.
